son; "Charles F. Lummis," Mrs. Hutchinson; "Masterpiece," Mrs. Dart.

The Cleofan.

At last week's meeting of the club the members were disappointed in Mrs. Lummis' inability to be present. Her tonic was "Archetype of a Roman Imperial Period." At the earnest request of the ladies present, Mrs. Cora Eldridge gave a talk on "Roman Architecture," which was very much enjoyed. The remainder of the time was taken up with club business.

Tuesday, Dec. 13, Miss Kate Wells will give the "Byzantine Period of Architecture."

Clover Leaf Club.

The Clover Leaf club was very pleasantly entertained last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Plummer, 535 East First South. Mrs. Plummer and her husband delighted their hearers with an instrumental duet.

Miss Edith Hinch gave a well-prepared paper on the "Development of Facilities of Transportation in the Nineteenth Century." After a general discussion of the greatest statesmen of the nineteenth century, the club was entertained with playing games and social time generally.

The Press Club.

The Women's Press club of Salt Lake have every occasion to remember the 9th of December, 1898, as on that day Mrs. Arthur Brown opened her beautiful home and entertained the ladies, forty in number, including a few invited guests. The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers, and a profusion of silver and cut-glass.

The menu was served in course, and was all that could be desired. The ladies were two hours at the table, responding to toasts—a feast of reason and flow of soul.

One lone man name appearing, the toast-mistress decided that he was such an eminent journalist that he was to be upon the program. He was given the lady who, knowing he had been dead over 100 years, did not hesitate to elaborate upon him. The program was as follows:

Prayer—Mrs. Doolin.
Singing "America" by the club, Mrs. Anna M. Bradley, accompanist.
Toasts—"Benjamin Franklin."
"It matters little where he was born, or if his parents were rich or poor."
Whether they shrink at this cold world scene.
Or basked in the pride of wealth secure.

Mrs. Lucia M. Rhodes.
"The Woman's Press Club: Its Origin—Its Present—Its Future."
"How shall I speak this or thy power address, thou God of our fathers, the press." Cowper—Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells.
"Utah Pioneer Women."

"There was a time when our fathers eyes, Led by her deep loves truth, Oh, called holy ground the land where first they trod."—Felicia Hemans—Mrs. Phoebe C. Young.
"The Freedom of the Press."
"Through the rare felicity of the times you are permitted to think what you please, to publish what you think."
—Dr. Romany, E. Pratt.
"Woman as a bread-winner."
"Not charity we ask, Nor yet thy gift refuse."—Holmes.

"The Club Woman," Ellis R. Shipp.
"Blinds the sweet with the good, And from cares and endeavor, Rest never."—Schiller—Miss Julia A. Farnsworth.
"Sarah E. Carmichael, Utah's Immortal Poetess."

"Immortal I feel it and know it, Who doubts it, let it be as she."—Lowell.
Mrs. Lydia D. Alder.
"Fanny Burney (Miss Darby)."
"The woman who did for the world of fiction what Jesus Taylor did for the drama, but did it in a better way, by writing the first novel ever written by a woman."—McCaulay—Mrs. Ella W. Hyde.

"Being the 'Origin of Gold' by Sarah E. Carmichael—Mrs. Alder.
"Women Engaged in Journalism in Utah."
"In their triumph and their yearning, In their passionate protestation, In their words among the nations, 'The Promethean fire is burning.'"
—Longfellow—Mrs. Ruth M. Fox.

"The Lady Reporter."
"They've taken it who leave me out, 'When me they say they're going.'"
—Emerson—Mrs. Anna M. Bradley.
Singing "Auld Lang Syne" by the club.

Those present were Mrs. E. B. Wells, Mrs. R. B. Pratt, Mrs. L. L. G. Green, Mrs. M. A. Farnsworth, Mrs. E. R. Shipp, Mrs. R. M. Fox, Mrs. S. E. Lawler, Mrs. L. M. Rhodes, Mrs. E. W. Hyde, Mrs. L. A. Clark, Mrs. E. H. Wood, Mrs. M. E. Miller, Mrs. L. D. Alder, Mrs. Olea Shipp, Mrs. E. R. Lovejoy, Mrs. M. Cairns, Mrs. P. C. Young, Mrs. A. B. Pratt, Mrs. A. W. Duggan, Mrs. F. A. Shetter, Mrs. C. C. Wells, Mrs. M. W. Eckert, Miss J. A. Farnsworth, Mrs. R. Doolin, Mrs. T. C. Brown of the club, and Mrs. A. W. Grant, Mrs. E. H. Jensen, Mrs. Amelia P. Young, Mrs. P. C. Beatty, Mrs. E. A. Empey, Mrs. M. C. Clawson, Mrs. Edith McLaughlin, Mrs. F. L. Clements, Mrs. P. C. Kimball and Mrs. A. W. McCune, guests.

Delta Phi Ball.

The coming Delta Phi ball will be given on Thursday evening, Dec. 23. Preparations are nearly completed, and much interest is being manifested. The college colors, silver and crimson, will be much in evidence in connection with the ball.

Ogden Society.

(Special Correspondence.)
Ogden, Dec. 10.—Tuesday afternoon Agata was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Fletcher. An excellent program was rendered, and a large number of club members were in attendance. The visitors were Dr. Aucutt, Misses E. B. Duncanson, Moffett, Whelan and Mrs. Perkins.

Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Allison sang a duet, with Mrs. Bent as accompanist. Mrs. Clifton gave a very clever and entertaining review of "Waiting for the Signal," a recently published American novel.

Roll-call was responded to by each singer giving a pretty and well-remembered quotation appropriate to Christmas time. After the social hour came some more delightful music, and then came delicious refreshments, served by the charming hostess.

The club will meet with Mrs. Paine, Dec. 27.

The Woodmen of the World will dedicate their new quarters Thursday night next.

The I. O. O. F. will dedicate their new quarters in the old Knights of Pythias hall, with appropriate ceremonies, Tuesday evening next.

Wednesday night "The Mikado" will be repeated, for the benefit of the public library, by the Ogden Opera company. It is to be hoped that Ogden people will sustainly appreciate their home talent and give the singers proper encouragement.

The scene of Dr. A. Cook and family without harm the night of the storm, when their house collapsed, appears almost miraculous. In removing the debris, it was discovered that several hundred pounds had crashed through the spot where Mrs. Cook and a child had been but a short time before the gales blew in. Mr. Cook wishes to give public recognition to the prompt, energetic and generous services rendered by the firemen to him and his family in the time of need.

The Methodist ladies will have their "Doll Fair" this week, beginning Friday, and continuing over Saturday. There will be a fine array of dressed dolls on display and for sale, besides other features of interest.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer entertained last week, a new game called "22" being introduced.

The prize winners were Mrs. Abs. Kuhn and Mrs. S. L. Brick.

The M. D. M. C. club met a week ago, with Miss Verna Hays.

Friday evening Miss Rose Shaw was the recipient of a surprise party at her home on Washington avenue. About twenty of her friends made merry for several hours.

PROVO SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Provo, Dec. 10.—Society in the Garden City has been resting this week. With the exception of the usual weekly dances and club meetings it seems that with one or two exceptions, nothing has transpired worthy of mention.

Martin F. Sanders of Colonia Diaz, Mexico, was a visitor here for several days this week. Mr. Sanders is on his way to Samoa, to fill a mission in the islands of the South Sea. He is an old student of the Brigham Young academy.

Miss Isabel Monahan entertained a number of her friends last evening. The hostess proved a model entertainer, and with her vivacity and wit and charming manner made her guests enjoy the early hours of night immensely.

James Sutherland has been in Provo this week spending his vacation visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Sutherland is employed in Silver City at present.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen entertained a number of their friends at supper Friday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Reed Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hedquist, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Thurman, Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Walter R. Pike, Mr. Samuel Allen.

At Lambert's dancing academy Wednesday evening a goodly company, representative of Provo's "four hundred," engaged in a social hop. J. J. Johnson won the prize for being the best waltzer. Every Saturday afternoon a large number of young folks turn out to take dancing lessons.

A very pretty wedding reception took place Tuesday night at the home of Peter Stubbs, the occasion being in honor of his son and new daughter-in-law, Mr. Albert and Mrs. Peter Stubbs. The young couple were married last week. Mr. Albert is well known among the inhabitants of Provo and his bride is equally well known. None but the immediate relatives of the family were present at the reception.

The M. I. A. league gave a successful ball last night in the Third ward meeting house.

Next Friday evening the young ladies of the Garden City will give a ball at Lambert's dancing academy.

Miss Beulah Bachman spent a couple of days in Zion this week.

The Utah Socials met Wednesday afternoon in the club rooms, the president, Mrs. Allen, presiding. The usual business was transacted, before the program for that session began.

The first on the program was a paper on "Greek Religion" by Miss Lydia Gates. The article was excellent and the members of the club appreciated it very much. After the reading of Miss Gates' paper a recess was taken.

Most of the members responded to roll call, each giving a quotation from the article read first. These quotations were intended to illustrate the symbols of the ancient gods.

Mrs. William Beebe conducted parliamentary drill, after which all members indulged in a general discussion of the question, "How to Debate."

In the fourth section, Mrs. Craig gave a very instructive and entertaining talk on "The Religious Training of Children." The club then adjourned for one week.

Fred Moore has been visiting his wife the latter part of this week. Mr. Moore is engaged in the C. H. Howe drug company of Denver at present. He leaves for his place of employment this evening.

Attorney D. D. Houtz went to Fillmore on legal business this morning.

Mrs. Bonham entertained the members of the Nineteenth Century club on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Searle gave a carefully prepared paper on the "Plantagenets."

After the parliamentary drill by Miss Searle, the report of the library by Miss Jackson, the hostess served light refreshments.

The good of the traveling library seems to be more appreciated as it becomes known that the library contains many useful publications.

LEHI SOCIETY.

Lehi, Dec. 10.—The friends of Miss Louise Francome gave her a very pleasant surprise at her home, the other evening.

Preparations are in progress for the wedding of Mr. Knute Ellingson and Miss Waltha Norton in the near future.

J. C. Granger of La Grande, Ore., is a visitor of T. R. Cutler.

The wedding and reception of C. Earl and Jennie Fowler were held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Broadbent. Bishop T. R. Cutler performed the ceremony. The guests at the reception were very select, and the presents very beautiful and costly.

Miss Nancy Goodwin entertained her friends at an evening social. Music and dancing were on the program, also luncheon. Among the guests were: W. S. Ross, Alice Boile, G. A. Smith, Miss Wromley, J. A. Kirkham, Alice Roberts and others.

H. Dyer of San Francisco is the guest of W. M. Ingalls, chief engineer of the sugar company.

Senator A. J. Evans spent a few days with friends in Sapperton.

Miss Edith Cutler, daughter of T. R. Cutler, has returned from San Francisco, where she has been spending a few weeks with Mrs. E. Smith, her sister.

James Kirkham was a visitor in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Jennie Childs visited friends in Provo for a few days.

M. S. Woodhouse and Miss P. Davis have entered the Brigham Young academy.

C. D. Evans of Springville is the guest of E. H. Davis.

Miss A. Reynolds of the Brigham Young academy, with her sister, Nettie, are the guests of J. Kirkham.

DAVIS COUNTY SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Kaysville, Dec. 10.—A very pleasant social event was the Red, White and Blue social given last evening at the home of Mrs. Amy B. Meredith by the Young People's Christian Endeavor society of Kaysville. There was a jolly company of young and middle-aged people present, each of whom wore the national colors, the colors of the evening's songs, that formed a pleasant part of the evening's entertainment, were of a patriotic character, and were also the recitations given. The evening was most pleasantly spent in games, etc., and an excellent luncheon was served.

This evening the Dancing club gives the first of its series of social entertainments. The club has given several enjoyable balls, and by way of varying their amusements, this social is being given. The program for this evening includes cards and various games, as well as dancing, etc. A supper will also be served. The event is exclusively for members and prospective members of the club. It will be given in Williams' hall.

Jed Stringham of Bountiful returned from a two years' mission in England last week.

The social event scheduled to take place in Farmington last evening had to be postponed, owing to the weather's inclemency. The "Recreation club's" social and ball at the Social hall were not given.

Last evening a farewell ball was given in the Bountiful opera house in honor of Charles Howard, who leaves next Thursday on a mission to the southern states.

Samuel Holt and Orson Page of Bountiful returned a few days ago from a pleasant trip to California.

The Kaysville Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement association expects to give a ball and program in the music hall next Friday evening.

MERCUR SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Mercur, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Fred Vahrenkamp returned from a visit of some weeks' duration in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Werner and daughter, Theresa, of Salt Lake, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Roosa.

Miss Mary Ann Collins, who has for a long time been in charge of the phone exchange here, has resigned her position, to take effect Jan. 1. She will go from here to California, and her place will be filled by Miss Nebeker of Salt Lake.

Entertainments of all kinds are billed to come off in the near future. The old Mahonken store is being converted into a dance hall, and the camp is increasing rapidly enough to make patronage sufficient for both.

Monday evening the Golden Gate band will give a concert, something new in Mercur. All the local musical talent will be represented, and the program would lead us to believe that it will be really an excellent performance.

Julius Lazenberg, a California merchant, is spending a few days with Ben Steinman.

EUREKA SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Eureka, Dec. 10.—The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will hold a bazaar at L. O. O. F. hall on next Thursday evening. A good program of music and recitations will be given, and a fine lunch served.

A progressive euchre party was given by Miss Pettitt on last Tuesday evening. The hostess won the first prize, and Miss Wickert the booby prize. The Eureka Mandolin and Guitar club, assisted by Miss Wickert, rendered some very fine musical selections. An elegant lunch was served.

Godiva lodge No. 8, K. of P., will have their annual skip on Friday evening, Dec. 23. The event is being looked forward to with great interest.

The Dewey club gave another of its popular socials at L. O. O. F. hall last night, which was well attended by the society leaders of the camp.

AMERICAN FOLK SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
American Fork, Dec. 10.—Friday evening a nice surprise party was given H. C. Smith by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, at their home. When the surprise party was gathered at 7:30 p. m., Mr. Smith was brought into the room. There were many amusements, and Mrs. Mary Evans, one of the sweet singers of American Folk, pleased the company with some of her sweetest selections, besides Mrs. Eva B. Smith, who is always ready with a number of the best pieces, was called out for songs and recitations several times.

Some of the elite had a most enjoyable select party at Beck's dancing parlors, at the Hotel Beck, last Monday evening. It was a success in every sense of the word.

Mrs. John Peters is on the sick list.

2,000 Volumes, Choice Books just received, embracing the late works of the most popular authors.
